

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Edward Behrens and his wife Abigail, whose ghost is said to remain in the Hall watching over the students, donated their 1827 Cotton Merchant's house for the continuing education of women. Once known as 'The Oaks', this Grade II listed Victorian building is now simply known as Behrens House.

FCS Accreditation

Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year from The University of Manchester