

Medical and Human Sciences

Celebration of women through time
as peacemakers

Much progress has been made to protect and promote women's rights in recent times.

In line with Manchester City Council's theme of 'Women as Peacemakers' all Schools from the Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences will be celebrating women's contributions past and present.

The School of Dentistry will be showcasing 'the changing face of women in Dentistry'

The School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work will be celebrating 'the role women have played as a humanitarian response'

The School of Medicine (6 Institutes + MMS) will be recognising 'Prominent Manchester Women in Medicine and Science'

Manchester Pharmacy School and The School of Psychological Sciences will be celebrating 'women in their School - past and present - and the contribution that they have made to changing organisational culture'.

International
Women's Day

Athena
SWAN

Bronze Award

Wednesday 5 March | 13:00—15:00 | University Place Foyer